

Anne-Marie Salmon
Save the NHS, 2012
Photograph
30 x 42 cms (unframed)

Anne-Marie Salmon is a local photographer also known as Upstream and Me.

She is the founder and director of Dogs Don't Snooze. Dogs Don't Snooze is a Non-Profit Community Arts Organisation based in London - working in ad-hoc venues in various communities.

Anne-Marie juggles her time between Dogs Don't Snooze, her full-time day job in the NHS, playing and reffing Roller Derby, a long-suffering man about the house and eating avocados and rice (although not necessarily together).

<https://www.facebook.com/DogsDontSnooze/>