

HOLLOWAY ART LENDING LIBRARY

Update – January 2017

We've scheduled our lending sessions for 2017. Be sure to put these dates in your calendar!

March 10-12

June 9-11

September 8-10

December 8-10

It was great to see everyone at the lending session in December! Below is a photo of Ken Edwards' mosaic, Magpies, in its temporary home. Visit our Facebook page to see more.

Ken Edwards is part of the Hackney Mosaic Project. We are lucky enough to have five mosaics from different members of the project in the collection. They work collaboratively involving people of all abilities to make beautiful public art. Here is a link to their website.

The artworks in the collection that weren't borrowed during the lending session are permanently on display in Resource for London's first floor gallery (map)

We are currently accepting new pieces into the collection. Please get in touch by 17 February, emailing us photos of up to three pieces you'd like to lend or donate (these should ideally be no larger than A3 in size and framed) or with any questions you have.

If you haven't already, you can register in advance to borrow from HALL. Click here and complete the short form. And then just bring your photo ID and proof of address along with you to the next lending session in order to borrow an original work of art for three months, free of charge.

Some artists have been in touch saying they have work they cannot afford to frame. To help with these framing costs, we have created a crowdfunding page on JustGiving. We've tried to keep costs for artists and members to a minimum, but if you could help artists with framing costs, it would be very much appreciated!

Thank you for your interest in the project and please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions!
